

SINGER JUSTIFIED FOR ATTACK WHEN LOCKED OUT IN HER "NIGHTIE"

Mrs. Orville Harold Tells How
She Fought Chauffeur in Hall
When Scantly Clad

Spread out before Magistrate today in West side police court today were a tiny girl and a man, a pair of long thin sticks and a pair of slippers. The girl, the wife of the operator of the Singer sewing machine, and her husband, a chauffeur, were the subjects of a case brought against Mrs. Harold by Mr. Harold, a chauffeur of No. 30 Mark's Place.

Small, below his name. He is an amiable, good natured man, but his hair cut short. In obtaining a divorce from Mrs. Harold yesterday he charged that she took off her shoe and hit him on the forehead with it during an argument over 25 cents due on a package he had delivered at her apartment on the tenth floor of No. 105 Central Park West late last Saturday night.

Mrs. Harold's husband is in Chicago with an opera company. She came to court today attended by a couple of friends and a maid. Her face was a bright crimson, the skin peeling off in spots, the result of "sunshine treatment," she explained later to the Magistrate.

Small swore that he was sent to Mrs. Harold's apartment by a druggist with a small parcel of medicine and instructed to collect 25 cents. Mrs. Harold, he said, refused to give him the 25 cents and when he demanded the parcel struck him with her shoe, inflicting a wound in which a surgeon later took three stitches. Small had no witnesses.

"The man's story is absolutely untrue," said Mrs. Harold. "It is true that I hit him with my fist but only after he had dragged me into the hall in my nightgown to my great distress and embarrassment. My ring may have cut him."

"I was alone in the apartment. It was after 11 o'clock when this man rang the bell. I pulled on my stockings and slippers—here is all I had on, Judge—and went to the door. I opened it a little way and he handed me the package with a demand for 25 cents."

"The smallest piece of change I had was 50 cents and, as I knew the medicine was paid for I didn't feel like giving that much for a tip and told the man so. He snatched awfully of beer."

"He reached in and pulled me out in the hall. The door swung shut behind me and I was locked out. I struggled with the man and one of my slippers came off. He picked it up and made as if to strike me and then I hit him. I had to borrow a wrap from a neighbor and wait in the public hall for my maid, who was out with the dogs, to come back and open the door."

Magistrate Corrigan dismissed the case.

DOESN'T RECALL KILLING.

Singer Planks Traffic, And Overlooked His Innocent.

As told to the Judge, a jury found that the man who killed the woman in the case of the Singer sewing machine, was not guilty of the crime. The man, who was found guilty of the crime, was not guilty of the crime. The man, who was found guilty of the crime, was not guilty of the crime.

That "change of scenery" you think you need, may be only a "change of glasses!"

If you are wearing glasses and have not had your eyes examined for two years—we suggest that you have them examined by an Oculist (Registered Physician)—care of yours.

Many persons take it for granted that once the eyes are fitted with glasses, and are in good condition as a result, they will remain so indefinitely.

But when you consider both the delicacy of the eyes and amount of work they have to do, you realize the need of continually looking out for changes in vision.

Harris Glasses cost $2 a pair or more.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered
Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—give a mild but sure cathartic, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. They are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. His efforts to banish it brought out these little olive-colored tablets.

These pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't inflame the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids.

It is best not to take calomel, but to let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place. Most headaches, "biliousness" and that dizzy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, which you feel "so good" and "so easy." Note how they "clear" the system, and how they "pick up" the spirits. At 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.
